

Riverbank Newsletter

31st January 2017

The new Riverbank Reporter:
Kyle Dornan.

Miss Kimberley has settled in well at Riverbank Academy and the staff have been very welcoming. Miss Kimberley said Riverbank Academy has some good Scientists and is looking forward to working with them

Miss Kimberley's favourite experiment is 'The exploding hydrogen balloon' and she likes making slime.

Miss Kimberley's goal is to make a difference in the way the students feel about science

Marley's
Music Box

One of our Year 9 students, Marley, made this fantastic music sound box during his CDT lesson at Ernesford Grange school.

New School Governor:

Welcome to Diane Francis who is a new Governor at Riverbank Academy, the Governors continue to meet every half term.

Miss Amory is our new Music HLTA whose aim is to get the students to interact and enjoy music. Miss Amory loves singing and her favourite instrument is the saxophone

The School Council:

Please meet our School council, they meet every 2nd Thursday each month to discuss any concerns or improvements in and around the school. This term they have been involved with creating notice boards and are in the process of doing a student surveys on trips.
