18th March 2020,

Dear Parents and Carers,

We have been working tirelessly to ensure that in the event of a school closure we can still keep communication channels open between our parents/carers and staff team. We pride ourselves on the supportive relationship we have with our parents/carers and we do not want this to suddenly stop because of a closure.

In the event of a closure, the following measures have been put in place:

- Our tutors have access to all our parents/carers contact details and we will make weekly contact by email or phone.
- We have published all of our tutor's email addresses on our website so our parents/carers can contact our tutors with any questions
- As a leadership team we will be communicating through online conference calling to ensure the leadership and management of the school is sustained.
- We have online resources set up and available for our students to access via www.riverbankacademy.org.uk
- For students that are anxious or worried about the changes we have a social story on our website which accessible via www.riverbankacademy.org.uk
- We have home learning packs printed and ready for students to complete. These have been differentiated as best we can to support student's learning and sent home tomorrow with students in school and posted home for those students that are isolating. As mentioned in my previous letter these work packs are optional. If as a family, you would rather spend this time reading for pleasure, playing with your children and taking part in creative games and activities please do.
- We are trying to source food vouchers for our families in need – communication on this will be between our pastoral team and individual families.
